2017 Persistence to Graduation Summit

The 2017 Persistence to Graduation Summit will feature peer-led interactive breakout sessions, a poverty simulation, and networking opportunities to deepen your knowledge on dropout prevention and reengagement strategies. The poverty simulation, led by Dr. Kathleen Cooter of Bellarmine University, will enable participants to gain a personal understanding of poverty as well as explore and discuss strategies that districts and schools can utilize to positively impact students and families of poverty.

June 14 - 15, 2017
Lexington, KY

Summit topics will include:

- Alternative education
- School climate & culture
- Chronic absenteeism
- Trauma-informed practices
- Community partnerships
- Early Warning tools & interventions
- Credit recovery
- Growth mindset
